Japanese War Fleet is Ordered to China, Although Government Says No War is Imminent Between Them.

Japan is Stirring Up Anti-Dynastic Movement and Organizing and Arming Rebels on Mainland of Asia.

May Call on England and United States to Arbitrate Differences Unless China Accedes to Demand.

Tokio, March 6.—The Japanese government, while maintaining the firmest attitude concerning the seizure of the ship Tatsu by the Chinese at Macao on February 7, entertains no idea of resorting to force for the recovery of the vessel. Possibly in the event that China delays action Japan will appeal to England or America to act as intermediary in the matter.

In view of the agitation against the foreign office instituted by the opposition, any indication of a concession by Japan to China would be extremely dangerous to the present cabinet officials. The foreign office has assured the correspondents that Japan would never declare war on account of such a minor incident. Nevertheless it is believed proper that Japanese vessels should visit the neighborhood of the imprisoned ship.

China proposed arbitration by Vice Admiral Sir Arthur William Moore, commander-in-chief of the British China station, but Japan refused these overtures also and has warned the foreign board that such proposals are unwelcome.

A Japanese Plot.

China's reply to Japan's demand for the release of the Tatsu Maru, an apology for lowering the sun flag and replacing it by the Chinese ensign and the payment of an indemnity to her is considered unsatisfactory to the Tokyo government. Although the reply does not decline acquiescence, the Japanese resent the delay in forwarding it.

It is stated here that Japan declares she will take whatever steps she deems advisable if China remains evasive and non-submissive, considering her failure to make reparation for what Japan styles an outrage to be a constant threat to Japanese shipping in Chinese waters.

China's compliance means an anti-dynastic movement fostered by Tokio and freed from the present imperfect checks and the arming of malcontents in China. Even in Shanghai itself Japanese are constantly caught by the foreign police selling arms to desperadoes, and they enjoy immunity from punishment owing to an extra territorial right.

Takahira is Optimistic.

Washington, March 6.—"I think the good sense of China will result in a satisfactory settlement within a day or so." This was Baron Takahira's comment when asked regarding the recent seizure by China of the Japanese steamship Tatsu with a cargo of small arms aboard. The statement was made at the conclusion of an extended conference between the baron and Secretary Root at the state department.

TRAITOR ARRESTED

New York, March 6.—Federal authorities admit that Heinrich Esser's arrest was made because Germany advised this country that Esser attempted to sell war secrets to Germany. It is alleged he tried to sell the parts of the Bliss torpedo. Germany gave assurance it would not take advantage of such offers.

VENEZUELA IN UGLY MOOD

Washington, March 6.—"Very ugly" was the terse way in which the state department defined the Venezuela situation. Conditions have reached a point where diplomatic relations between the two countries may be terminated any day. In an important meeting of the bureau of American republics, presided over by President John Barrett, the representative of Venezuela failed to attend.

TWO HOUSES BURN

Two three-room houses on South Twelfth street near Jones street were destroyed by fire this morning at 1 o'clock. Another house adjoining was badly burned. The houses were occupied by colored tenants and it is presumed the blaze started from an overturned stove. The houses were the property of George Bernhard. Fire companies Nos. 2 and 4 answered the alarm.

CUPID ON THE WIRE.

Sentimental words attracted the attention of Patrolman Aaron Hurley yesterday afternoon while standing at Ninth and Jackson streets. He heard a man's voice but the patrolman saw no one within a block of him. The voice appeared to come from a sewer. The "copper" heard "sweetheart" and "dearie" repeated, but still he could not find his man. With good use of his billy he lifted off the lid of a manhole, but nobody was down there. Then by accident the patrolman looked heavenward, and perched on top of one of the tallest telephone poles was a telephone lineman talking to his best girl. The patrolman called to the lineman, but the man was so busy talking to "dearie" that he did not listen to the guardian of the peace.

HARRIMAN SHOWS HIS HAND AGAINST ADMINISTRATION

Reno, Nev., March 6.—Anti-Roosevelt forces, headed by Southern Pacific employees, secured control of the Republican state central committee and passed resolutions favoring the nomination of Hughes. Resolutions endorsing the administration were defeated. Taft was ignored.

THREE CHILDREN CAUSED BLAZE IN COLLINWOOD, OHIO

Cleveland, March 6.—A big general memorial service for the unidentified dead is set for Monday morning in Collinwood. Private funerals were held this morning.

The official investigation in the Collinwood tragedy shows that flames first appeared from a closet below the main stairway. This closet contained a large quantity of inflammable lime and sawdust. Less than one hour before the fire broke out a teacher had discovered the three tots in this closet, hiding away from their class.

Unless it is later discovered that some fiendish incendiary laid the fire, the belief will prevail that the children in some way set the lime and sawdust ablaze, then they wandered back to their seats upstairs to meet the horrible death of their schoolmates.

FAIRBANKS LOSES HIS CONTROL OF CITY COMMITTEE IN LOUISVILLE

Convention Places Will be Publicly Announced and Taft Men Will Preside in Every Ward.

Louisville, Ky., March 6.—The allied forces of the Grinstead administration and the supporters of Judge William H. Taft won a great victory before the Republican county executive committee, and rules were adopted for the conventions to be held April 25 for selecting delegates to the state convention and a party committee favored by the Grinstead and Taft men.

The Fairbanks combination, that has had complete control of the committee for three months, was completely routed. The call offered by that combination was voted down by a vote of 29 to 18.

The Fairbanks men were fairly dazed by the result. They had succeeded in carrying the committee on every question for weeks, and on the first test vote, taken last evening, appeared to be in a majority. The rules suggested by that combination, however, were so revolutionary that the committee rebelled and went over bodily to the Taft and Grinstead camp. When the meeting was called to order at 415 Center street, forty of forty-two members of the committee were present.

STRANGERS NOT WELCOMED AT ALL BY NIGHT RIDERS

Wish to Know Your Business on Border of Caldwell and Lyon and Trigg.

Deputy Marshal is Treated With Respect.

BUT RIG IS HARD TO SECURE

Ellwood Neel, deputy United States marshal, has just returned from the very heart of the night rider infested district beyond the Tennessee river, and reports that he was treated with respect and even courtesy, although his mission was official and directed against the alleged night riders. But he received assurances that uninvited strangers are not welcome around the junction of Trigg, Caldwell and Lyon county.

Marshal Neel spent the first three days of this week serving summons on defendants in the suit of Robert H. Hollowell and wife against a number of alleged night riders. He served thirteen at the funeral of James Chambers, one of the defendants, near Hopson's store, Caldwell county. Some of the others he served in Lyon county around Lamasco. None of them live in Trigg and he found all, except William Larkin. He passed the Larkin home, but the defendant was on the jury, and the marshal did not stop there, intending to serve the summons at the county seat. However, when he reached town he learned that Larkin had been discharged and was at home. He lives about twelve miles out on a very bad road, so the trip was deferred until later.

Mr. Neel hired a rig and stipulated that with it should go a driver, who knew the people and roads. His request for a rig disclosed the condition existing.

"What do you want it for?" inquired the liveryman.

The marshal innocently told his business, and the liveryman made an excuse not to hire the outfit.

Another experience of the same kind convinced the marshal that subterfuge would have to be resorted to to get started on his mission. He got a rig and white driver at the third place and started out. He had no trouble and found the people pleasant to deal with, but the second day his driver deserted him, afraid he might incur the ill will of some one.

The marshal discovered that the question as to his business is asked of every stranger, and anyone who can not satisfy the people as to his identity beyond shadow of a doubt is quickly made to understand that his own safety lies in the speed he manifests in getting out of that section.

An itinerant photographer was run out a few days ago, because some one suspected him of being a secret service agent.

DEBOE AND FRANKS, ANCIENT ENEMIES OF W. O. BRADLEY, PROMISING EVERYTHING FOR FAIRBANKS DELEGATES IN FIRST DISTRICT

Fire Protection at City Schools.

Orders were issued today to the principals of the city school buildings by Superintendent J. A. Carnegie to practice the fire drills at least once a week. The Washington school has about 1,000 pupils, and is the only school building in the city with a fire escape. It has one fire escape on the east end. The fire escape was unlocked this morning and in working order when examined. All of the doors of the school buildings open outward, with the exception of the main floors of the High school, and today Fred Hoyer, superintendent of buildings, changed the doors to open outward. With the exception of the Washington school, which is three stories, all the buildings are two stories. The board of aldermen last night adopted a resolution providing for the immediate construction of fire escapes on Riverside hospital.

HEART FAILS HIM AND A. ROSENTHAL DIES SUDDENLY

Albert Rosenthal, 47 years old, was seized with heart disease this morning at 7 o'clock in the rear of his restaurant, Eleventh Street and Broadway. When found by Mrs. Rosenthal and son, Julius, he was unable to speak, but when carried into the restaurant he revived slightly and recognized his wife and son. Dr. B. L. Bradley was called, but soon after the arrival of the doctor Mr. Rosenthal died. He had not been ill more than complaining of pains in his breast for several days. This morning before he was found he was in his usual health.

Mr. Rosenthal was born in St. Louis, but had resided in Paducah many years. Until last August he was a manufacturer of cigars, when he retired and entered the restaurant business. Besides his wife he leaves five children: Julius, age 14; Joseph, age 13; Goldie, age 11; Joseph, age 7, and Thelie Audrey, age 6. Two brothers are left, Dr. M. Rosenthal, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., and Ben Rosenthal, a merchant, of Owensboro. Both brothers have been notified and will arrive this evening.

Mr. Rosenthal lived at 226 North Ninth street, and was a quiet and sociable man. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World, Eagles and the Red Men.

The funeral will be held Sunday at an hour to be named.

MY DEAR ALFONSO

Madrid, March 6.—King Edward and Emperor Wilhelm have imported King Alfonso to not make the contemplated trip to Barcelona, because of the anarchistic troubles there. Alfonso, it is said, will disregard this advice just to show the anarchists he is unafraid.

COMMONWEALTH'S WITNESS WARNED WITH SWITCHES

Princeton, Ky., March 6. (Special.)—John T. Jackson, charged with being in the band of night riders that raided Princeton in 1906 is on trial here. There are many witnesses. James C. McLean, one of the commonwealth's witnesses, found a bundle of switches at his door this morning.

WEATHER.

Thunder storms this afternoon or tonight followed by colder. Saturday fair and colder. Highest temperature yesterday, 78; lowest today, 60.

24TH DISTRICT CONVENTION OF ILLINOIS CALLED

Metropolis, Ill., March 6.—(Special.)—While Joe Cannon will be endorsed by the congressional convention of the Twenty-fourth district, which meets at McLeansboro April 2, the Taft sentiment among the voters in the district may influence the delegates to choose two national delegates, who will go to the Roosevelt choice on the break. The impending fight for the congressional nomination in this district also may cut some figure in the convention. Congressman Chapman will be a candidate for re-election and may be opposed by Charles Burfee, of Golconda.

The counties are allowed the following representation in the convention: Clay, 12; Edwards, 8; Gallatin, 7; Hamilton, 9; Hardin, 4; Johnson, 11; Massac, 10; Pope, 9; Saline, 14; Wayne, 17; White, 13.

The people will not have a direct voice in choosing the delegates as they did in Ohio, Cannon preferring to leave that to county committees.

TALK OF RECEIVERS FOR TWO BIG SYSTEMS

St. Louis, March 6.—Rumors that a receivership for the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain railroad systems will be applied for, became more persistent here today, following the announcement that the Western Maryland, a Gould road, is in a receivership's hands. The Missouri Pacific especially is reported to be in serious financial straits. Creditors are pressing for accounts past due. Vice-President Cochran, of the Missouri Pacific, declares the road is able to meet its obligations and there is no truth in the report that a receivership is contemplated.

BROKE WORLD'S RECORD

Ormond, Fla., March 6.—Driving his sixty horse-power Italian car for three hundred miles at an average of 77 miles per hour, the Italian Cedrino broke the world's record for average speed, for the distance. Nazario's average in the grand prize race was 70.8 miles per hour.

Mrs. Sophia King.

Mrs. Sophia King, 45 years old, died yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock at her home in Little Cypress, of measles. Mrs. King is survived by one brother, Mr. George Powers, of Little Cypress. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The burial was in Wood cemetery.

KY. STATUTES NOW HAS COUNTY UNIT BILL TO CONSIDER

Frankfort, Ky., March 6. (Special.)—In the senate this morning the county unit bill, passed by the house, was given second reading and referred to the committee on Kentucky statutes, generally considered friendly. The rules committee took charge in both houses this morning and Senator Conn Linn will sit on the bill. The Crecelius house bill, penalizing any one selling pooled tobacco outside the pool, or knowingly buying same, passed the senate by a vote of 28 to 5. A bill, providing a penalty for selling property where the title is in one person and possession in another, also passed.

Both Have Outrageously Broken Pledges With Senator-Elect and He Will Never Trust Them to Peddle His Influence in Western End of Kentucky.

Their Boasts Recall Historical Contests in Which They Have Tricked Senator Bradley and Repeatedly Thrown Him Down at Critical Moments in His Political Career.

W. J. Deboe, of Crittenden county, and Ed Franks, of Owensboro, internal revenue collector, cannot deliver all the goods they are promising in the first congressional district for the support of Fairbanks delegates, against those who are in line with President Roosevelt, so the fellows, who are accepting boodle from the fat bank roll, which the Fairbanks machine and the anti-Roosevelt trust organization are sending to western Kentucky, are going to realize more from the sale of their manhood suffrage, than are their dupes.

Two reasons are cited for this statement: First, they are promising the same offices to different men; and secondly, Senator-elect Bradley doesn't like a hair on the head of either one of them and wouldn't trust either one of them as far as he can see.

He will not say anything now to prejudice the situation and he will let old grudges rest until after the state convention; but Senator Bradley is wise, and he cannot be fooled twice by the same people. He has been fooled once by both Ed Franks and W. J. Deboe.

WHAT FRANKS DID TO BRADLEY.

The alleged alliance with Senator Bradley, of which the unseated western Kentucky bosses boast, and the senator does not speak, recalls some historical contests for control of Republican conventions in Kentucky, in which all three men took part.

In 1896 Ed Franks was one of the loudest supporters of W. O. Bradley for president, until he was selected by Bradley's friends for temporary chairman of the Second congressional district convention. Then he appointed a committee on credentials, which unseated enough Bradley delegations to throw the district to William McKinley. It was not wrong for any district to support William McKinley, but W. O. Bradley remembers that Ed Franks did not keep his word on that occasion, and no matter how much Senator Bradley might like Ed Franks, he could not be expected to trust him any more.

Ed Franks and W. J. Deboe both fought A. E. Willson before the state convention last year, while W. O. Bradley was a Willson man, and Deboe took seventeen out of the 140 delegates from the First district to Louisville to fight against Willson. The men, who are supporting Taft in this district, threw the remainder of the delegation to Willson and were the nucleus of the majorities, which carried the convention for Judge James Breathitt and Capt. Ed Farley. Captain Farley is one of the closest friends Senator Bradley has in the state, and he is founder of the Capitol Taft club.

WHAT DEBOE HAS DONE TO BRADLEY.

Four years ago W. O. Bradley wished to go to the Republican national convention as one of the "Big Four" from Kentucky. F. M. Fisher, Captain Ed Farley and J. C. Speight and others, all Taft men, carried the counties of McCracken, Trigg and Hickman for Bradley, while W. J. Deboe, and James Happy and the rest of the present Fairbanks contingent swung the remainder of the district against him. That was four years ago, when Deboe still had his hands on the federal patronage. How his hold has slipped and in what bad grace he stands at Washington now, is shown by the result of the fight for the district last year, when he succeeded only in carrying his own county.

Ed Franks' own position as internal revenue collector has been promised by Franks' own employees to a Calloway county man and several others. There are as many men assured of every office as there were when W. J. Deboe promised himself into the senatorship, and that recalls the bitterest pill Deboe ever pained off on the then unsuspecting W. O. Bradley.

Senator-elect Bradley had nine votes in the legislature, when the deadlock was on for United States senator. Deboe needed them and he agreed with W. O. Bradley, that in return for those nine votes, Deboe, upon assuming the senatorship, should allow Bradley to control the federal patronage of the state. Bradley agreed.

But Deboe also made the same agreement with Hunter, who had a larger number of votes for senator, and Hunter was allowed to rule.

The idea of a man of the shrewdness of Senator-elect W. O. Bradley allowing such men as W. J. Deboe and Ed Franks to peddle his influence for patronage throughout western Kentucky is absurd.

Every real friend and admirer Senator Bradley has, and every Republican leader who has a record of promises kept in western Kentucky, is a Taft man.

TAFT IS CERTAIN TO WIN.

Moreover, Taft is sure to win. Of the 132 delegates already chosen he has 98; and he is the only presidential candidate who has a single delegate instructed for him outside his own state, while in Illinois and Indiana, he will be second choice of the delegates. The Hughes delegates in New York will be friendly to the national administration and will go to Taft with Hughes probably as vice-president.

The men who are playing the Fairbanks game in the First district will not stand much show with the next national administration, regardless of any consideration. If the First Kentucky district comes out with a pioneer Taft delegation, it will stand conspicuously in the favor of the administration. But if it goes for Fairbanks, the district will go down as anti-administration, while the Fairbanks leaders out this way must always be suspected of double dealing by the Republican United States senator from Kentucky.

The McCracken county mass convention to select delegates on Monday at 1:30 p. m. at the court house.

BRYAN'S HOME STATE

Omaha, March 6.—After a two hours' debate the Populist convention decided to recognize the call of the national committee and send a full delegation to the Populist national convention at St. Louis. Thirty-seven delegates were selected and instructed to vote and work for Bryan's interests.

The Democratic state convention, as expected, was unanimous for Bryan. The Bryan platform is: Immediate declaration of purpose to recognize Philippine independence. Income and inheritance tax. More money for improvement of inland rivers. Recognition of states' rights and prevention of centralization. Federal license for corporations, and law preventing duplication of competing corporations' directors. Election of senators by direct vote. Immediate tariff revision. Modification of rule as to injunctions. Opposition to Al-drich bill. For postal savings banks.

NIGHT RIDERS REGULATE COLLECTION OF BILLS.

The latest self-imposed duty of the night riders is to regulate the severity which bill collectors may use in collecting accounts. James Wilkins, an Illinois Central employe, living on Jones street, today received a poorly written scrawl signed "Knight Riders," informing him that if he did not let up in his attempts to collect a board bill from a party named in the letter, his name would be inscribed in the fatal "doomsday book" and he would receive a call from the regulars. The case may be reported to the postal authorities.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish form after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

TWO CAUSES OF CONTROVERSY BETWEEN CHINA AND JAPAN CREATE UNEASINESS

Island Empire Complains at Chinese Competing Railroad in Manchuria.

Tokio, March 6.—China contends that the Tatsui, which had on board 1,500 rifles and a large amount of ammunition, as Japan admits, carried also 750 rifles and other ammunition which did not appear on the manifest and were secreted. Japan declares that the munitions of war were openly shipped in Japan and properly consigned to Quong Wo & company, a firm in Macao, the Portuguese colony. The Chinese say the firm are notorious agents for revolutionaries.

The Japanese say that the Tatsui was lying ten miles off Macao, waiting for a plot when she was seized. The Chinese alleged that she was attempting to make a surreptitious landing of her contraband cargo. The Chinese acted on a telegram received from their agents in Japan when the Tatsui sailed thence.

After the seizure Japan made a prompt demand for an apology and indemnity and the release of the Tatsui, the release to be made first, China, after some delay, promised to reply on February 29. The day came and the reply was not made.

Two Other Controversies.

There are two other controversies between China and Japan, either of which might entail grave consequences. One is the claim of the Chinese to the right to let a contract for a railway that would parallel the Japanese Tsinmintun-Fakumen line at a distance of forty miles. The Japanese contend that this would be a violation of agreement of 1906 as to the construction of parallel lines in Manchuria. The Chinese hold that the agreement did not contemplate prohibition at such distance as forty miles.

The other trouble is over the Kwangto district, a richly timbered tract of land on the upper Yalu river, which has long been claimed by both China and Korea. Japan recently claimed it definitely on behalf of Korea. China refuses to give way, and both Chinese and Japanese troops are now in the district, the former having been considerably reinforced lately.

By resolution last night the board of aldermen ordered moving picture machine operators to undergo an examination by Electrical Inspector W. J. McPherson, and to keep spectators out of the operating booth. By resolution, introduced by Alderman W. T. Miller, the board also ordered fire escapes placed on Riverside hospital, without unnecessary delay.

Necessary right of way for a public street from Broad street to Tennessee street past the union station were ordered secured by the street department.

Health Officer W. T. Graves' annual report was received and filed. Overcharges of $7.40 city taxes were ordered refunded to Mrs. Samuel Plumb. A similar order was made in answer to the petition of the City Purchasing company for $122.10.

Complaint of Barney Padgett that his property outside the city was assessed, was referred to the tax book supervisors, as was the protest of Mrs. H. C. Allison at her assessment.

A petition for the grading and graveling of Twenty-fifth street from Broadway to Adams street, was referred to the street committee.

City License Inspector Bob Hicks was elected committee clerk at $25 a month.

Mayor Smith was instructed to execute supersedeas bond to take the suits of the auditor's agent against the city to the court of appeals.

Saloon licenses were granted to James Loftin for 1537 Broad street and to Herbert Johnson, colored, for 121 Kentucky avenue.

At the request of William Borne-man, the counter claims between him and the city for sewer assessment and remuneration for right to cross his property with the sewer, were referred to the sewer committee.

Monthly reports were received and the payroll claims allowed.

The following aldermen were present: Hannan, Stewart, Hank, Ochlschlager and Miller.

If it wasn't for the optimist the pessimist would never know how happy he isn't.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Cheap Substitutes and
"Just As Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low-grade, impure whiskey, which they tell you is as "good as Duffy's."

It is a cheap concoction and fraud, intended to deceive the people. Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure drugs. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!
Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A facsimile of the genuine bottle, full size, is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle—round, amber colored, and with the name "Duffy's Malt Whiskey Company" blown into the glass. The trademark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

REFUSE IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES

When you ask for DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY be sure you get the genuine which is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey containing medicinal, health-giving qualities. Imitations and substitutes, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand DUFFY'S, and be sure you get it. Be on your guard against refilled bottles.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey promotes health and longevity.

WEILLE'S EXPOSITION OF SPRING STYLES

We beg to announce the first showing of Spring Styles in Exclusive Patterns and Weaves

SATURDAY, MARCH 7.

THE artistic and skillful touches of America's foremost designers and tailors are prominently reflected in the magnificent new Spring Clothes which will be on display at our store tomorrow. The distinctiveness of the exclusive models now attracting so much attention in our exhibit of Spring Clothing for Men and Young Men is due to our facilities for securing advanced style information, and being connected with the foremost makers of ready-to-wear clothing in this country.

We were never so enthusiastic over anything as we are over the offerings we show this season, and the many customers who have been in to make selections are equally as enthusiastic.

Just note our windows for a few suggestions of the Canterbury College Brand and L System Models, the makers of uncommon clothes.

Drop in any time and acquaint yourself with the fashions that will reign this spring.

BOY'S SPRING CLOTHES

This is Distinctively
The Boys' Store

THE showing of Spring Clothes in our Boys' and Children's Department surpasses any of our previous efforts.

All styles, Buster Brown, Peter Pan, Sailor Blouses, Norfolk, Belted Suits and the Plain Double Breasted, made with both plain and Knickerbocker pants in an endless variety of patterns on the tailor made plan.

FOR INSPECTION

ROY L. CUTLEY & COMPANY WILL DISPLAY PICTURES.

They Have Been Installed and the Public Should See the Works of Art.

Roy L. Cutley & Company announce the unveiling of their series of handsome posters tomorrow morning. The pictures have been installed and will be ready to show the public then.

They are the work of Fred H. Babcock, America's most famous poster artist and depict famous English and American games. Ten by fourteen feet in size, they occupy prominent places on the side walls of The New Store and add much beauty to an already very handsome store, at the same time innovating a new feature in store ornamentation in Paducah.

In connection with the picture exhibit, special displays of all Spring goods will be made in every department of the store. Following the fixed policy of the firm, all goods from former seasons have been disposed of, and nothing but the new stocks find place in the house.

The three seasons this popular store has been here is an evidence of what may be expected in those features. Always striving to show just a little more advanced and novel but attractive offerings than can be found elsewhere, the success of this season's efforts in that line will be noted at a first glance.

The public is cordially invited to the store tomorrow and all next week, to inspect the pictures, and also to try on the new models in clothing. A visit does not imply that you need make any purchases, but they do want you to see what they have to offer.

The average husband takes his wife's advice—around the corner and loses it.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ORATORICAL CONTEST ARE MADE

Representatives of Hopkinsville, Madisonville and Paducah High schools have been selected for the oratorical contest, which will be held in Hopkinsville a week from tonight. Madisonville will be represented by Clarence Jennings, who comes from a family noted for their oratorical powers. Caldwell Feland will represent the Hopkinsville High school and compete against Edward Mitchell, representative of the Paducah High school.

Each High school has the privilege of selecting a judge. The Rev. H. D. Smith was chosen by Hopkinsville, and Judge C. C. Givens by Madisonville, while the Paducah judge has not been selected. Delegations are expected from all of the cities at Hopkinsville. The contest will be held in the Union tabernacle, and pennants for the three schools will be used in the decorations.

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louisville, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time, and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at all druggists.

River stage at 7 o'clock this morning read 33.1; a fall of 0.3 since yesterday morning.

The steamer Kentucky arrived from the Tennessee last night with a big trip of freight for Paducah, Brookport and Joppa. She went on down the river to unload this morning and take on freight preparing to leave for the Tennessee Saturday night.

The Lydia arrived from Joppa yesterday morning and got away for the Cumberland late in the afternoon after ties.

The Russell Lord got in last night from White river with a tow of ties and will get away tomorrow morning for White river after another tow, in the interest of the Ayer & Lord Tie company.

The steamer Royal was inspected this morning by steamboat inspectors Green and St. John, of Nashville and passed in first-class condition. The boat left this afternoon for Golconda, and will resume her regular trip tomorrow.

The Georgia Lee will leave Cincinnati today for Memphis. She is due here Monday.

The towboat Spread Eagle was loaded today by the West Kentucky Coal company preparing to leave for St. Louis next Monday. The boat has been tied up in the ducks nest for the winter.

The Dick Fowler will resume her daily trips to Cairo commencing Monday. She has had her machinery repaired and has been scrubbed and painted.

When the Chattanooga pulled out for the Tennessee yesterday she had 15 passengers for Chattanooga and one of the largest trips of freight she ever carried up the Tennessee river.

Charles Cassel, fireman on the Fannie Wallace, has resigned and takes the place of fireman on the Goldenrod.

Captain James Koger and wife have returned from a month's visit to Cuba.

A young man by the name of Wright, deck hand on the towboat American, fell in the river yesterday afternoon and was sinking for the third time when he was pulled out by friends in a skiff. Wright was walking along on the gunwale of a barge, carrying a line and another fellow had hold of the other end of the line and he pulled a little too hard, pulling Wright overboard. A skiff was quickly let down from the boat and hurried to the rescue but almost too late, as Wright was going down for the last time when the men in the skiff caught him by the hair and pulled him out. Wright was put to bed but had a hard time in getting his breath, as his lungs were almost filled with water. He is now all right.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon, will continue rising 6 to 7 days, passing the flood stage, 35 feet, during Saturday. At Paducah, will continue falling for 12 hours, then begin rising. At Cairo, will continue falling until Saturday morning, then begin rising.

The Tennessee from Florence to below Johnsonville, will continue rising for three days, passing 8 feet at Florence Saturday morning.

The Mississippi from below St. Louis to above Cairo, will continue rising during the next 36 hours.

The Wabash, at Mt. Carmel, will continue to rise slowly.

"THERE'S a comforting sense of Certainty when a mother buys anything in The Boys' Shop. Of course she don't have to examine it for its quality, and as for its style, she knows it's Absolute in its Authority."

Boys' Spring Clothes

THE showing of Spring Clothes in "The Boys' Shop," like those for his father and big brothers, even surpasses any of our previous efforts. All styles—Buster Browns, Sailor Blouses, Peter Pans, Norfolk, Belted Suits and the conservative double-breasted, made with both plain and knickerbocker pants—will be found in bewildering array of handsome and attractive patterns. Furthermore, one of the most attractive features to the line this spring are the prices—

Daily Thought.

Faith easily dies without fellowship.

Enemies of the McChord tobacco bill should have it referred to the senate committee on public morals.

Surgeon General Wyman reports that impure milk is causing a high death rate among infants. There, we knew the abolishment of the canteen would result in an army of molly coddles.

State Senator Combs has introduced a bill providing for salaries of school trustees. That solves the problem of the disposition of their surplus revenue for the Paducah board.

Fairbanks supporters got worsted in the first round with the Taft men in the Louisville committee. Seems that the Indiana machine is disintegrating at its strongest point.

Figuring on the situation in the east is the most interesting problem for the student of international conditions. Japan is just now acting ugly toward China. England is Japan's ally and has ordered a small fleet into the Pacific, sufficient to disturb our western coast and employ the attention of part of our Pacific forces. China looks to the United States as her next friend, and our interests in the orient are much bound up with China's integrity, though we have formed no entangling alliances, and will not do so, but must rely on figuring as a moral force. The amalgamation of China and Japan was never realized, as western nations feared, and the proximity of the restless islanders to the somnolent giant of the main land, is ever a menace to the peace of the world. Of course, the present situation may have been brought about by the Japanese administration to secure popular support to the excessive army and navy budget, that nearly disrupted the government.

Saturday and Sunday intervene, and then will take place the Republican county conventions, at which delegates will be elected to the First district convention. Taft is the popular candidate among the voters; but the expression of the people's choice will depend on how they turn out to the mass convention to instruct their delegates. The chairman of the district, it is said, will endeavor to seat every contesting delegation that comes to Paducah March 11 in the name of Fairbanks. As the only line of action that will forestall his efforts to control the convention with the gavel, the counties must show such an overwhelming desire for Taft and bind their delegates so securely with instructions that they cannot get away from them. The delegates must be instructed how to vote on the organization of the convention. Ohio showed the proper course of procedure, when she endorsed her favorite son and then threw all the Foraker men out of the state committee. Indorse Taft for president and then see that none but Taft men are put on guard in the First district.

NEBRASKA FOR TAFT.

"It is my observation that, Taft is the strongest man in the party, and from present indications, I do not see how he can be prevented from getting the nomination," said John L. Webster, of Omaha, Nebraska, in Washington recently. Mr. Webster was endorsed by his state in 1904 for the vice presidential nomination, and was a prominent candidate for United States senator when John M. Thurston was elected to the position. Although he has not been active in politics for several years, he has never lost his interest or his power of accurate observation.

"In Nebraska eight out of every ten men are supporters of Mr. Taft. It is my judgment that Taft is the best equipped man in the country for the high office of president. No man at his age, with the possible exception of Alexander Hamilton, ever had more difficult and varied duties to perform, and he has never failed. As secretary-general of the bench, as secretary of war, in the Philippines, in Cuba, and in Panama, Mr. Taft has made good.

"What opposition there is to him in Nebraska will disappear before the time for the election of the delegates-at-large arrives, and he will have the unanimous support of the Republicans of the state. The delegates will probably be instructed for him. Hughes, I think, will have a large following in the convention, but it is my opinion that Taft will be the choice, and that then the convention will force the second place upon Governor Hughes, as the Philadelphia convention forced Roosevelt to accept the nomination in face of his strong opposition. That ticket, Taft and Hughes, would make the strongest one the Republicans could name."

REFUTES OWN STATEMENT.

The Kentucky State Journal says this:

"Since the election of Senator Bradley, Fairbanks stock has gone away up. It will be observed that the Indian was first to send him a congratulatory dispatch. Senator Foraker also sent one, but those of Roosevelt and Taft were conspicuous by their absence."

And then in the same issue publishes this letter:

"My Dear Senator Bradley:
"I must add just a line to the list of congratulations you are receiving. My pleasure was as a great surprise when the good news came. I trust I may see you not so very long hence—in Washington."

"With regard, believe me, Very truly,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

ON THE ROAD TO CHICAGO.

With three state convention—Ohio, in Kansas and in Louisiana—at work, yesterday was by far the busiest day in delegate selecting which has come thus far. Up to the close of operations last night 134 delegates have been chosen for Chicago. Ninety-eight of these have been instructed for Taft, twenty-six for Fairbanks (those of Indiana), and the rest go to Chicago uncommitted to anybody in particular. Taft and Fairbanks are the only presidential aspirants who have received any support in the states or the districts which have chosen representatives to the national convention, and Taft is the only one who, up to this time, has support outside of his own state.—Globe-Democrat.

Senator Combs, of Lexington, has introduced an omnibus bill making forty changes in second class city charters; but we have heard nothing of the two Paducah measures in the house and the committee on rules is in charge.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

This Means You.

Would you like to live in a healthy town?

Would you like to live in a cleaner town?

Would you like that town to be Paducah?

If so, get busy.

Help the board of health to beautify Paducah by cleaning up your premises and alleys; thereby lowering the rate of mortality and raising the name of your city.

A hint to the wise is sufficient. So if you procrastinate—receive a notice to clean up, don't blame the inspectors. J. R. Galtner, R. D. Barnett, inspectors.

SLIGHTLY HUMOROUS.

Many mistake faultfinding for fidelity.

"A lot o' folks' patience," said Uncle Eben, "resembles dat of de man who stays in de house an' waits for de snow to melt, regardless of de people dat's fallin' down on his sidewalk."—Washington Star.

"Which do you like best, pugs or dachshunds?"

"I never eat sausage."—Houston Post.

Mrs. A.—"I thought Mrs. C. was a friend of yours?"

Mrs. B.—"And so she is."

Mrs. A.—"Well, she isn't. She's a hypocrite."

Mrs. B.—"How do you know that?"

Mrs. A.—"Because she tried to get me to say something mean about you."

Mrs. B.—"She did? How?"

Mrs. A.—"Why, she asked me to tell her what I really thought of you."

The Spoilers.

McNamara's astonishment was so genuine that he leaped to his feet, faced about, and prompted by a secretive instinct swung to the safe door as though to guard its contents. He had acted upon the impulse before realizing that his weapon was inside and that now, although the door was not locked, it would require that one dangerous, yes, fatal second to open it.

The two men stared at each other for a time, silent and malignant. Their glances meeting like blades in the older man's face a look of defiance, in the younger's a dogged and gruff perturbation. McNamara's first perturbation left him calm, alert, dangerous, whereas the continued contemplation of his enemy worked in Glenister to destroy his composure, and his purpose blazed forth unblinded.

He stood there unkempt and soiled, the clean sweep of jaw and throat overgrown with a three days' black stubble, his hair wet and matted, his whole left side foul with clay where he had fallen in the darkness. A muddy red streak spread downward from a cut above his temple, beneath his eyes were sagging folds, while the flicker at his mouth corners betrayed the high nervous pitch to which he was keyed.

"I have come for the last act, McNamara. Now we'll have it out man to man."

The politician shrugged his shoulders.

"You have the drop on me. I am unarmed." At which the miner's face lighted fiercely, and he chuckled.

"Ah, that's almost too good to be true. I have dreamed about such a thing, and I have been hungry to feel your throat since the first time I saw you. It's grown on me till shooting wouldn't satisfy me. Ever had the feeling? Well, I'm going to choke the life out of you with my bare hands."

McNamara squared himself.

"I wouldn't advise you to try it. I have lived longer than you, and I am never beaten, but I know the feeling you speak about. I have it now."

His eyes roved rapidly up and down the other's form, noting the lean thighs and close drawn belt, which lent the appearance of sparseness, belied only by the neck and shoulders. He had beaten better men, and he reasoned that if it came to a physical test in these cramped quarters his own great weight would more than offset any superior agility the miner might possess.

The longer he looked the more he yielded to his hatred of the man before him and the more cruelly he longed to satisfy it.

"Take off your coat," said Glenister. "Now turn around. All right! I just wanted to see if you were lying about your gun."

"I'll kill you!" cried McNamara.

Glenister laid his six shooter upon the safe and slipped off his own wet garment. The difference was more marked now and the advantage more strongly with the receiver. Though they had avoided allusion to it, each knew that this fight had nothing to do with the Midas and each realized whence sprang their fierce enmity.

And it was meet that they should come together thus. It had been the one certain and logical event which they had felt inevitably approaching from long back. And it was fitting, moreover, that they should fight alone and unwittingly, armed only with the weapons of the wilderness, for they were both of the far, free lands, were both of the fighter's type and had both warred for the first great prize.

They met ferociously. McNamara aimed a fearful blow, but Glenister met him squarely, beating him off cleverly, stepping in and out, his arms swinging loosely from his shoulders like whalebone withes tipped with lead.

He moved lightly, his footing made doubly secure by reason of his soft soled mukluks. Recognizing his opponent's greater weight, he undertook merely to stop the headlong rushes and remain out of reach as long as possible. He struck the politician fairly in the mouth so that the man's head snapped back and his fists went wild, then, before the arms could grasp him, the miner had broken ground and whipped another blow across, but McNamara was a boxer himself, so covered and blocked it. The politician spat through his smashed lips and rushed again, sweeping his opponent from his feet. Again Glenister's fist shot forward like a lump of granite, but the other came on head down and the blow finished too high, landing on the big man's brow.

A sudden darting agony paralyzed Roy's hand, and he realized that he had broken the metacarpal bones and that henceforth it would be useless. Before he could recover McNamara had passed under his extended arm and seized him by the middle, then, thrusting his left leg back of Roy's, he whirled him from his balance, flinging him clear and with resistless force. It seemed that a fatal fall must follow, but the youth squirmed catlike in the air, landing with set muscles which rebounded like rubber. Even so, the receiver was upon him before he could rise, reaching for the young man's throat with his heavy hands. Roy recognized the fatal "strangle" hold and, seizing his enemy's wrists, endeavored to tear them apart, but his left hand was useless, so with a mighty wrench he freed himself, and, locked in each other's arms, the men strained and swayed about the office till their neck veins were bursting, their muscles paralyzed.

Men may fight duels calmly, may shoot or parry or thrust with cold deliberation, but when there comes the far of body to body, the sweaty contact of skin to skin, the play of iron muscles, the painful grasp of exhaustion—then the mind goes skittering back into its dark recesses while every venomous passion leaps forth from its hiding place and joins in the horrid war.

They tripped across the floor, crashing into the partition, which split, showering them with glass. They fell and rolled in it, then, by consent, wrenched themselves apart, rose, eye to eye, their jaws hanging, their lungs wheezing, their faces trickling blood and sweat. Roy's left hand pained him excruciatingly, while McNamara's mangled lips had turned outward in a hideous pout. They crouched so far an instant, cruel, bestial then clinched again. The office fittings were wrecked utterly, and the room became a litter of ruins. The men's garments fell away till their breasts were bare and their arms swelled white and knotted through the rags. They knew no pain, their bodies were insensate mechanisms.

Gradually the older man's face was beaten into a shapeless mass by the other's cunning blows, while Glenister's every bone was wrenched and twisted under his enemy's terrible onslaughts. The miner's chief effort, it is true, was to keep his feet and to break the man's embraces. Never had he encountered one whom he could not beat by sheer strength till he met this great, snarling creature who worried him hither and yon as though he were a child. Time and again Roy beat upon the man's face with the blows of a sledge. No rules governed this solitary combat; the men were deaf to all but the roaring in their ears, blinded to all but hate, insensible to everything but the blood mania. Their tramping feet caused the building to rumble and shake as though some monster were running amuck.

Meanwhile a bareheaded man rushed out of the store beneath, bumping into a pedestrian who had paused on the sidewalk, and together they scurried up the stairs. The door which Roy had seen at sea had shot the breakers, and now its three passengers were tracking through the wet sand toward Front street; Bill Wheaton in the lead. He was followed by two rawboned men who traveled without baggage. The city was awakening with the sun which reared a copper rim out of the sea. Judge Stillman and Voorhees came down from the hotel and paused to gaze through the mists at a caravan of mule teams which trotted into the other end of the street with jingle and clank. The wagons were blue with soldiers, the early golden rays slanting from their Krags, and they were bound for the Midas.

Out of the fogs which clung so thickly to the tundra there came two other horses, distorted and unreal, on one a girl, on the other a figure of pain and tragedy, a grotesque creature that swayed stiffly to the motion of its steed, its face writhed into lines of suffering, its hands clutching cante and horn.

It was as though fate, with invisible touch, were setting her stage for the last act of this play, assembling the principals close to the golden sands where first they had made entrance.

The man and the girl came face to face with the judge and marshal, who cried out upon seeing them, but as they reined in, out from the stairs beside them a man shot amid clatter and uproar.

"Give me a hand—quick!" he shouted to them.

"What's up?" inquired the marshal.

ASK RIDERS

FOR PERMISSION TO HANDLE HIS TOBACCO HOME.

Awaits Communication From Them and is An Association Man From This Time On—The Latest.

Murray, Ky., March 6.—(Special.)

Clint Stewart, the farmer of the east side of Calloway county, has addressed the following communication to the night riders, who called on him at his home a few nights ago. The letter is published in the Murray Ledger today as follows:

"A band of 50 night riders came to my house last Friday night about 12 o'clock and told me not to deliver any more of my tobacco, which I said I would not deliver. I have given up my contract and got theirs. If they will let me move it I would like to move it home and bulk it down as it is in another man's barn and somebody will have to move it. If they will let me move it home and bulk it down so it can keep I would be glad that they would let me know by leaving a note in my mail box, my box is on the Almo route. I thank them very much for treating me so nice. If anybody asks you, you can tell them that I am in the association as soon as I can get in and would have been in long ago if I had not been a renter."

W. C. STEWART.

David and H. S. Morgan and A. D. Broach, other non-association farmers, who have been warned, have also published statements that they will put their next year's crop of tobacco in the association.

COMPANY WILL ADMIT GUILT.

Intimated That Frisco Officials Will Plead Guilty to Rebating.

St. Louis, March 6.—Officials of the Frisco railroad intimated that a plea of guilty will be entered to the indictment returned yesterday by the federal grand jury, in which the road is charged with granting rebates to the Chapman & Dewey Lumber company, of Kansas City. The indictment contains thirteen counts and the maximum fine is $1,000,000 on each count and a minimum is $220,000. The plea will be made that the granting of rebates to the lumber company was a practice of the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis railroad, which was absorbed by the Frisco system in 1901.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Pretty Nashville Wedding.

Thursday's Nashville Banner says of the wedding of Miss Sarah Scott Bringham, who is prominently related in Paducah, as follows: "A quiet wedding of much social interest was that of Miss Sarah Bringham, of Clarksville, and Mr. David P. Neilson, of this city, which took place at 5:30 p. m. yesterday at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Lula B. Epperson, on West Patterson street. The officiant was Rev. Collins Denny, and the impressive ceremony was witnessed by a limited company, including the family and a few Nashville friends of the popular young people and a party of Clarksville friends who accompanied the bride to the city yesterday. The wedding took place here instead of in Clarksville, the family home, in order that the bride's mother, who is an invalid and who is spending the winter here, might be present. The Epperson home made a pretty environment for the bridal scene, and it was charmingly decorated with ferns and palms, stands of white roses and pink carnations. Clarksville friends of the bride arranged an artistic musical program which preceded the ceremony. Mrs. Henry Lupton was the pianist, accompanying the singers, Miss Mary Day and Mrs. Harold Mitchell, former Miss Eva Tyler, of Clarksville, and playing the wedding march. The only attendant was the bride's pretty little niece, Katherine Clarke, who wore a lace-trimmed white mull frock, with pink ribbons, and who carried a wreath of pink carnations. She held the bride's bouquet of violets, fringed with lilacs of the valley, during the ceremony. The bride, who is very bright and attractive and who will be an acquisition to the local younger married set, was a charming picture in her traveling suit of tailored cloth in two tones of brown, with a cream mull blouse and a braid hat trimmed with velvet and pompons to harmonize. After the ceremony heart-shaped ices, flower cakes and confections were served before the departure of the bride and groom for a two-weeks' trip, after which they will make their home with Mrs. Epperson. Although the wedding was so quiet, a handsome collection of wedding presents was received from friends who had learned of the date of the wedding. It included china, silver, cut glass and furniture. Among other out-of-town guests, besides those who gave the musical program, were the bride's parents, Capt. and Mrs. W. R. Bringham, the groom's mother, Mrs. J. T. Brown, of Humboldt, who has been visiting Mrs. A. S. Warren; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hill of Birmingham, the latter formerly Miss Lullie Baptist, daughter of Col. N. W. Baptist; Robert Bailey and Haynie Head, of Clarksville, and the bride's cousin, Mr. Theo. Plummer, of St. Louis, who was in Nashville yesterday by a happy chance and attended the wedding."

Kalosophic Club Elects Officers.

The Kalosophic club held its annual business meeting with the election of officers this morning at the Woman's club house. The present officers had served the full time-limit of two years and new ones were elected as follows: Mrs. Edward Bringham, president; Miss Lula Reed, vice president; Miss Philippa Hughes, secretary and treasurer; Miss Caroline Sowell, corresponding secretary. It was decided to study the history, literature and art of Italy next year. The committee on arrangement of the program is: Miss Marjorie Scott, chairman; Miss Blanche Hillis, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Edward Bringham. The officers will not go in until next October.

J. N. O. F. Club.

The J. N. O. F. club was entertained last night by Miss Eunice and Mr. Velvin Quarles, at their home, 123 Clements street. A delightful evening was spent, and in a contest in which the guests were blindfolded, Miss Edith Marsh took the first prize, a box of candy, and Mr. Silas Howard captured the second prize, a rattle. Those present were: Misses Lottie Loftin, Mae and Lillian Boungou, Vera and Minnie Wilson Augusta Ingram Ruby McDonald, Edith Marsh, Eunice Quarles, and Messrs. Ernest Smith, Myrtle Cooper, Lawrence Jones, Lloyd Powell, Harley Reeder, Virgil Cooper, Silas Howard, Velvin Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Quarles and Mr. and Mrs. William Quarles.

Woman's Club Compliments Former Officers.

At the regular fortnightly session yesterday of the Woman's club in the club building, the house committee reported that the rentals of the building for the last month were $82, a splendid refutation of the argument that the club house is an extravagance, as it is more than self-sustaining. Mrs. John D. Smith and Mrs. Jetta Weil Hobson were received as members. At the conclusion of the business session, the second vice-president, Mrs. James Campbell Flournoy, took the president's chair and the election of the president, first vice-president and recording secretary was called. Mrs. Frank L. Scott, chairman of the nominating committee, stated that she had only three names to present to those of the present officers, Mrs. James A. Rudy, for president; Mrs. Elbridge Palmer, for first vice-president, and Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips, for recording secretary. They were unanimously elected. The compliment while exceedingly high, was in every way well merited. Mrs. Rudy has been president since the organization of the club, but Mrs. Palmer and Mrs.

Must Clear Streets.

Streets in the business district must be kept clear of standing horses, buggies and automobiles, according to the edict issued from the office of Chief of Police Collins today. The patrolmen will procure warrants for the owners of vehicles blocking the streets. Fourth street is crowded frequently with buggies, and it is difficult for the fire department to race with any speed in answering an alarm.

Inheritance Tax Cases.

City Appeals.

City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., has taken an appeal from the decision of the county court, holding the city of Paducah liable for taxes on unsold lots in Oak Grove cemetery, the market house and wharf property for the last six years. The cases have been carried to the circuit court. In the lower court it was decided that the cemetery lots, market house and wharfage should have been assessed at $10,000 each for the years 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, and the lots and market house at $10,000 and the wharfage at $25,000 in the year 1906. Similar suits are now pending to collect taxes on all the property for the years 1907 and 1908.

Mr. G. G. Beale, of Murray, was here last night.

Mr. H. L. Anderson, revenue agent for the state at large, arrived in the city this morning from his home at Mayfield.

In Bankruptcy.

The schedule of the assets and liabilities of the Thompson, Wilson Whiskey company, which was filed with Referee Bagby yesterday shows that the company owes about $160,000, with assets amounting to about $43,000, including the notes and accounts. Of the indebtedness about $1,500 is secured and preferred claims while the remainder is unsecured.

The schedule shows that the company has assets as follows: Cash; $700; stock and fixtures, $6,500; horse and wagon, $150; notes and accounts, $35,000, making a total of $43,350.

Mrs. Lorraine's Will.

Objection to the probate of the will of Mrs. B. E. Greif Lorraine will be heard by the county court next Monday, the objection having been made by some of the relatives of Mrs. Lorraine. The will, which was offered for probate yesterday, bears date of April 3, 1907, and bequeaths everything to her husband, David Lorraine, with the exception of her work basket and contents, which are given to a niece, Mrs. Willie Wolf. The signature was witnessed by E. H. Puryear and Elizabeth Robinson. The husband is named as executor.

Mrs. Lorraine died Tuesday and after the funeral some of the relatives appeared before the county court and asked that the estate be placed in the hands of F. G. Rudolph, public administrator, and the order was made. Yesterday the will was produced and the judge set aside the order and will hear evidence in the case Monday. Mr. Lorraine, beneficiary of the will, claims that he is justly entitled to the property involved, as he gave it to his wife.

Deeds Filed.

LODGE FOR TAFT

Washington, March 6.—The attention of Senator Lodge was called today to the statement of his colleague, Senator Crane, of Boston, that Massachusetts should send delegates to the Republican national convention unhampered.

In response to a question as to whether he had any comment to make Senator Lodge said:

"I am for Taft, and if the state convention does me the honor to choose me as a delegate it will do so with the knowledge that I will support him."

RULES COMMITTEE IS NOW IN CHARGE

Control All Legislation From This Time Forward.

Contest Cases in Lower House Are Reported and Decided By Agreement—In Senate.

NEW BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

Frankfort, Ky., March 6.—Today the committees on rules take charge of all bills in the two houses and the respective chairmen will be objects of much solicitude from this time on, as their wishes will be all powerful in respect to bills reported for action. The committees are as follows:
House—W. J. Gooch, ex-officio chairman; W. F. Blair, L. W. Arnett, George S. Wilson, J. W. Clay, J. A. Sullivan, J. F. Porter, W. H. Shanks, E. B. Beard.
Senate—Conn Linn, chairman; H. S. McNutt, J. W. Newman, T. A. Combs, J. Wheeler Campbell, J. P. Chinn, M. G. Watson.

In the House.
The house ratified the action of the committee on code, which recommended that house bill 219, repealing section 606 of the code of practice, in relation to husband and wife testifying, not pass. The board of contest in the case of E. S. Howard, Democrat, against Denver B. Cornett, Republican, of Bell, Perry, Harlan and Leslie counties, the Ninety-third district, made a report to the effect that, after hearing the evidence, the committee has decided that Mr. Cornett is entitled to his seat. The report says that, after throwing out precincts in which fraud existed, Mr. Cornett still had a majority of the votes. The committee recommended an allowance of $150 each to Howard and Cornett for expenses. The report was concurred in.

No Members Ousted.
The committee having in charge the case of T. B. Buford, Republican, vs. Hugh Mahin, Democrat, Jessamine county, recommended the seating of Mahin, which report was concurred in. The same reports were made and concurred in in the following:

Howard vs. Woodford, Bourbon county; Dalton vs. Dixon, Allen county; Brashear vs. Finley, Hopkins county; King vs. Shanks, Lincoln county; Paris vs. Butler, Crittenden and Livingston counties.

The reports were by agreement between the Republicans and Democrats.

A motion to extend the session until the reports of all the committees had been made was adopted.

In the Senate.
The following bills were introduced:
Cureton—Act to abolish rate clerk of the railroad commission and to give other assistants instead.

Charlton—Appropriating $18,000 for another factory building at the Frankfort penitentiary.

Campbell—Act amending the code so as to give the defendant and commonwealth ten challenge each in felony cases.

Campbell—Amending Section 4543 Kentucky statute, relating to reports of testimony taken by stenographers.

Campbell—Amending Section 1697 Kentucky statute, increasing household exemptions.

Cureton—Act to amend the constitution so as to exempt new railroads from taxation for five years.

Combs—Act to repeal the act to regulate the carrying, shipping, etc., of liquors to local option districts.

Combs—Act to provide pay for boards of education in second-class cities.

Combs—Act making numerous amendments to charters of second-class cities.

Charlton—Act to establish a state reformatory and changing the Eddyville penitentiary to the state reformatory.

Linn—Act to amend the act continuing the State Dental association.

Slap at Lawyers.
Representative John L. Smith, in opposing the bar examination bill said he considered it a slap at the present lawyers of the state, and wanted to know if all lawyers now practicing would have to undergo examination again. He thought the present law a good one, and urged that it be well tried before being discarded.

Representative Strange urged that the boys be given a chance, and spoke against the bill. The bill was finally passed by a vote of 47 to 40.

Representative Graves, who opposed the bill, voted for it in order to enter a motion to reconsider, attempting the Klair tactics, but the move failed, for Representative Wilson moved to lay the Graves motion on the table, and the motion carried.

It Does the Business.
Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at all druggists.

FAIRBANKS LOSES

the convention, and the voters would have little chance.

There was another even more revolutionary feature in the Vance call, that the ward chairman selected by the committee, and not by the voters, should have the power to designate the place of holding the ward conventions. As the people of the residence section are strongly favorable to Mayor Grinstead, this section would have enabled many of the ward chairmen to put the places for holding conventions down on the river bank.

Marshall Bullitt's Substitute.

Mr. Marshall Bullitt promptly offered a substitute set of rules. They provide that the committee shall designate temporary chairmen but that the voters shall select their own permanent chairmen and the will of the majority must be obeyed. They also provide that the place of holding each ward convention shall be publicly announced at least two weeks before the conventions and that these places must be placed as nearly as possible in the central portion of the wards. It was announced that these rules were favored unreservedly by Mayor James F. Grinstead.

Taft Men in Session.
Henderson, Ky., March 6.—A rousing meeting in the interest of Taft for president is now in progress. A club of prominent Republicans will be formed. Organization of the Second district leaders is being perfected at the Hotel Kingdom, Paul M. Moore, Earlington; Charles H. Hugger, George W. Jolly, A. Steidler, Jr., Owensboro; Postmaster W. H. Overby, Judge John Francis Lockett and other leading Republicans of Henderson are present.

Moore says Hopkins county is heavily for Taft "in spite of officeholders." All believe that Taft can carry the entire Second district.

Louisiana held important meetings here today. Resolutions endorsing William H. Taft for president were adopted by the Republican state central committee, which is recognized by the secretary of state of Louisiana as entitled to official use of the party emblem. The committee fixed May 1 for the state convention to elect four delegates-at-large and alternates to the Republican national convention and to nominate two electors.

Guaranteed Cure for Constipation

After watching results for sixteen years, during which time many millions of bottles were sold and thousands of letters from users were received, the originators of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound, feel safe in guaranteeing it in the various diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, such as chronic constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, bloated stomach, heartburn, etc. There is an absolute guarantee to refund the purchase price if Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin does not do what is claimed for it.

For sixteen years this remedy has been recommended for stomach, liver and bowel complaints and the fact that each year more and more families are using it proves that it has the merit claimed for it, and the letters we are constantly receiving prove that it is curing those diseases. Hence the guarantee is justified. Mr. A. J. Allen, of Boston, T. J. considers Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best laxative tonic on the market because, to use his own words, "It does all you claim for, and I do not know of another medicine of its kind that does." Mrs. Williams, of Sidney, Ill., writes that she has used it in her home all her married life and would not keep house without it. Thousands of others have written to the same effect. If you have any complaint for which Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is recommended go to your druggist and get a 50 cent or 1 bottle. Take it on the basis that we guarantee satisfaction. You will find it gentle in action and pleasant in taste. It works promptly and efficiently, and unlike purgative waters, salts and cathartic powders, it does not gripe and leave you feeling weak and sore. It is safe to say that you will like it and use it regularly when you have call for a laxative. It is especially suited to children and weak people because of its gentle action.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying, can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and it only costs to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest and most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." The product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

TAFT SURE.

Chicago Record-Herald Man Makes His Prediction.

Washington, D. C., March 6.—"Secretary Taft will be the nominee on the second ballot, if he is not chosen on the first ballot," said H. H. Kohlsaat, owner of the Chicago Record-Herald, to the Evening Post correspondent.

"And there is no question that he will be elected," added Mr. Kohlsaat. "There is a strong Taft sentiment in Illinois, and he is undoubtedly the second choice of the state."

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing hope to the public a parallel fact: that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

DELINQUENTS

ARE HAILED BEFORE ORDINANCE COURT THIS MORNING.

Failed to Pay Licenses for 1907 and Inspector Gets After Them—Cobbler Objects.

Delinquent license payers when a warrant was secured in police court by the license inspector have had the privilege of having the warrant dismissed on the issuance of the license. Sold under guarantee at all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

A Higher Health Level.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at all druggists. 25c.

Senate Legalizes Betting.

Frankfort, Ky., March 6.—A complete divorce of poolrooms and race track bookmaking in Kentucky is made in the municipalities committee's substitute for the Wilhelm anti-poolroom bill, passed by the senate yesterday by a vote of 33 to 4. The bill legalizes betting on race tracks, while providing drastic penalties for the proprietors or patrons of poolrooms, and the forfeiture of office and imprisonment for officers who permit them to exist. Senator Jack Chinn led the fight for the bill passed, on the ground that the extensive horse breeding interests of the state demand betting on race tracks to be permitted. The bill now goes to the house.

LISTEN

And remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man of Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure I owe this to your liniment." Sold by J. H. Oehlischlaeger, Lang Bros. and C. O. Ripley.

Indictment Changed.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 6.—Upon motion of the commonwealth the indictment which was returned Monday against Rob Wood charging him with sending a "night rider" letter to another threatening to do him harm with the intention to gain money, property, goods or things of value from him or another was dismissed, and a new indictment charging Wood merely with sending a threatening letter was returned. The first indictment was under the felony statute and the latter charge is a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment in the county jail, or both.

STILL HOPE

BUT RIVER MEN WILL WAIT FOR ANOTHER CONGRESS.

Nothing Doing for Deep Waterway Project at This Session a Certainty.

Washington, March 6.—Representative Ramsdell, of Louisiana, who is president of the national rivers and harbors congress, has little or no hope of any river and harbor legislation at this session of congress. Nevertheless, he introduced a bill today, calling for an appropriation of $300,000 for works to protect the banks of the Mississippi river in front of New Orleans. It is learned that Representative Lorimer, of Chicago, the leader of the lakes-to-the-gulf deep waterway movement, is disposed to allow matters to rest during the present session of congress. Mr. Lorimer believes he and his assistants will be able to swing the big pet project with little trouble in the next session of the present congress. The members from other states of the valley are of the same opinion.

It is considered just as well to wait until the commission that has been engaged in making the survey from St. Louis to the mouth of the Mississippi has made its final report and estimates.

A BABY

Should be sunshine in the home, and will be if you give it White's Cream Vermifuge, the greatest worm medicine ever offered to suffering humanity. This remedy is becoming the permanent fixture of well-regulated households. A mother with children can't get along without a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge in the house. It is the purest and best medicine that money can buy. Sold by J. H. Oehlischlaeger, Lang Bros. and C. O. Ripley.

It isn't necessary to mention your lawyer in your will; he's sure to get his share.

ALICE ROOSEVELT'S WEDDING

Was something to be recorded in the annals of history. Herbine has been acknowledged the greatest of liver regulators. A positive cure for Bilious Headaches, Constipation, Chills and Fever and all liver complaints. L. C. Smith—Little Rock, Ark., writes: "Herbine is the greatest liver medicine known. Have used it for years. It does the work." Sold by J. H. Oehlischlaeger, Lang Bros. and C. O. Ripley.

YOUNGER MEN ARE GIVEN AN INTEREST

Wallerstein Brothers Incorporate Their Firm This Week.

Messrs. Melvin, Herbert and Milton Wallerstein Are Given An Interest.

WILL BE NO CHANGE IN POLICY

Articles were filed yesterday incorporating the firm of Wallerstein Brothers. The capitalization is $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each and held as follows:

H. Wallerstein 490
J. Wallerstein 550
Melvin Wallerstein 50

These three gentlemen are the originators, and in a few days stock will be transferred to Mr. Herbert L. Wallerstein and Mr. Milton H. Wallerstein.

The firm will be governed by a board of directors consisting of the five Messrs. Wallerstein. Mr. H. Wallerstein will be president, Mr. J. Wallerstein, vice-president and treasurer, and Mr. Melvin B. Wallerstein, secretary.

The corporation takes over the stock of merchandise of the firm of Wallerstein Bros., the buildings remaining the property of Messrs. H. and J. Wallerstein.

There will be no change in the plans or policy of the firm, the corporation being formed to take the younger Messrs. Wallerstein, who have been in its employment, into the organization, and is but fitting recognition of three sterling young business men. Mr. Melvin Wallerstein, who will be secretary of the company, has been acting in the capacity of general manager for a year or more, supervising the buying of all departments and also the advertising. He is a great believer in and a keen student of the theory of system as the great force in modern business organizations, and has applied it with marked intelligence.

Mr. Herbert Wallerstein has been in the sales department and has developed a native talent for that feature of the business.

Mr. Milton Wallerstein has had supervision of the collections and his great success reflects the intelligence and application he has brought to the work.

Wallerstein Brothers is one of the oldest and most substantial as well as

TREATMENT FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

(Honolulu Evening Bulletin.) It is a curious but satisfactory fact that chronic Bright's Disease, which, according to medical authorities, is an incurable and fatal disease, is now actually being cured. We have not attached importance to the statements of recoveries we have seen in the papers from the states, but that they are not all rumors is now evident from several recoveries here.

A. H. Otis, of the Honolulu Drug Co., tells us of two interesting cases. One was swollen with dropsy due to advanced Bright's Disease, and both the patient and his physician had given up hope. Otis kept urging a trial of the new treatment until the patient finally consented. Recovery was complete, the patient leaving a few months later for California, where he now resides.

Another case was that of an officer on one of the island steamers. He was in a hospital and considered hopeless when put on the treatment. He has now been back at his post for some time.

Otis says there are very few failures, but that it requires patience. Honolulu Bulletin.

I heard about this and sent for it in the interest of patients here. I will be pleased to give any one calling full information. W. B. McPherson, Paducah, Ky.

BLOOD WILL TELL

Old Adage Proven By Paducah People.

Many people have looked upon this idea with ridicule and scepticism, but show us a person in Paducah who has pure rich, red blood, and we will show you a person who is healthy, strong and robust with clear skin and bright eyes. On the other hand, a person whose blood is poor, thin, badly nourished, sluggish or watery is just as sure to be subject to nervousness and all kinds of human aches, pains and ills, and that tired and all-dragged-out feeling is inevitable. Then the impurities of the blood often break out in the form of eruptions.

To such persons we recommend Vinol, the modern cod liver preparation without oil; it will purify, vitalize and enrich the blood, and create health and strength in a surprisingly short time. This is because Vinol is a scientific preparation containing all the medicinal and body building elements of cod liver oil taken from fresh cods' livers with peptonate of iron, which is a needful constituent for the blood, added.

We ask any person in Paducah to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. W. B. McPherson, Paducah, Ky.

largest retail establishments in Paducah. Organized in 1868, its growth has been a little in advance of the town, rapid and substantial, until to day they occupy probably as handsome quarters and have as well as equipped and furnished men's store as can be found anywhere in the south.

TYPICAL MARCH WEATHER ON TAP IN ALL SECTIONS

Paducah has been treated to an "advance showing" of spring weather yesterday and today. The highest temperature yesterday was 78; near summer heat, and the lowest today was only 60. Overcoats have been temporarily laid aside, and most men seen today were vestless. The weather man predicts thunderstorms for tonight, and colder tomorrow, but adds, tomorrow may be "fair enough." The weather was typical of March all morning and last night. The wind blew at a great velocity, and the dust has been so bad a cry was sent up for the street sprinkler.

Basketball Game.

A basketball game will be played tonight at the Eagles' gymnasium between two teams in the city. No admission will be charged. It is the first time the teams have met. The lineup will be: D. A. D.—Robert Fisher, center; forwards, Gus Elliott and James McGinnis; guards, Reuben Bagby and Edwin Cave. The other team will line up: Harry Singleton, center; guards, Will Rinkoff and Will Henneberger; forwards, Felix St. John and Henry Henneberger.

The Message of Spring

ANOTHER spring and another change of raiment; the change is always welcome and interesting. Winter is the season of blankets and spring and summer the real time for men's dress. We are ready to show you what the master tailors have prepared for your spring wear. The products reveal "marvelous surprises" and mark a distinct advance in the creation of patterns. The credit of this is due the woolen mills. But the progress in the art of tailoring is due to the makers of clothes whose models are here on exhibition. They include "Roxboro" and Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes and are so superior from every point of view that we are fully justified in asking the patrons of merchant tailors to pay us a visit. The decision will be left in your own hands, and no undue influence will be exerted. We are willing to allow the clothes to plead their own cause.

LETTER OF GOVERNOR HANLY, OF INDIANA, TO MAYOR BOOKWALTER

"February 26th, 1908.—My Dear Sir: I am impressed with the conviction that the people of the city of Indianapolis are rapidly reaching a crisis involving one of the great public utilities of the city—the telephone. The state is interested in the result; it is now and must always be a substantial patron of this utility. Nearly every state office is equipped with the telephones of both systems. The transaction of the official business and the convenience of the public require that they be so equipped. The Central Hospital for the Insane, the Girls' School, the School for the Blind, the School for the Deaf and Dumb and the Woman's Prison, because of their location within or near the limits of the city, are necessarily patrons of both systems.

"In the next 25 years Indianapolis will in all probability be a city of half a million people. Telephone extensions will be a necessity. Whatever system is in use will require to be modernized. I believe it apparent to all thoughtful citizens that one modern, well-equipped system is essential to the city's welfare. This can best be accomplished by the consolidation of the two companies now holding franchises. Such a system ought to be operated under a franchise just to the people and just to the company owning it. In order that those charged with the responsibility of determining what this franchise should be may act intelligently, full and accurate information relative to the expense of operating the present systems, the cost of original plants and of extensions made and amount of money actually invested therein, the capital stock of the companies and the bonds issued by them, profits that have accrued and dividends paid and the cost of future extensions and of the modernization of the system that is to be used should be ascertained. Both companies ought to be willing to give this information to the public.

"That the investigation may be im-partially and thoroughly made, it is essential that it be conducted by some one disinterested and in whom the public will have full confidence. I, therefore, propose to you, to the Central Union Telephone company and to the Indianapolis Telephone company, that I will direct the Hon. Charles V. McAdams, a member of the state railroad commission, to conduct such an investigation if the companies will consent thereto and submit to him their books and accounts for inspection and examination. Mr. McAdams is a man in every way qualified to conduct such an investigation. His integrity, his ability and his grasp and appreciation of the interests involved especially equip him for the task. A full report of the investigation when concluded will be made to you as the mayor of the city of Indianapolis for the benefit of the common council of the city and of the public.

"If the city and the companies will consent to this investigation, his services will be rendered without cost to either the city or the companies, provided the city and the companies will each pay one-third of the expense of such clerical and accountant assistance as he may find necessary to employ.

"The above proposition is made in absolute good faith with a desire to obtain a just and fair settlement of the questions involved and with full appreciation of the rights of the companies and of the public.

"I invite your early, sincere and kindly consideration thereto, and will be glad to be advised of your acceptance thereof. Very truly yours,

"J. FRANK HANLY,

"Governor of the State of Indiana."
